

Library Advisory Committee for the Faculty of Law Terms of Reference (September 2017)

Purpose

- To provide a forum for the Library and the Faculty of Law community at Queen's University to discuss and inform Library services and strategic priorities. See Queen's University Library Strategic Priorities.

Reporting

The Committee is advisory to the Vice-Provost and University Librarian, who collaborates with the Dean of the Faculty of Law.

Membership

- 2 members from the Faculty of Law
- 1 JD student
- 1 graduate law student
- Ex-officio members:
 - Head Law Librarian (Chair)
 - Dean, Faculty of Law or delegate
 - Vice-Provost and University Librarian or delegate
 - Head, Open Scholarship Services, Queen's University Library
 - Head, Collection Development and Assessment, Queen's University Library
 - Head, Discovery and Technology Services, Queen's University Library
 - Head, Information Services, Queen's University Library

The term of office for non-ex officio members is one year, with the possibility of extension.

Meetings and Communication

- Meetings will be held twice a year or as needed.
- All faculty members of the Faculty of Law are welcome as guests at meetings.
- The minutes will be posted on the Queen's University Library web site.

These terms of reference will be reviewed annually.