

Locating and requesting articles not available at Queen's

Expanding your search results will look at electronic items that Queen's does not have direct access to but can often be found and supplied by RapidILL.

Enter the article title or search for additional articles by entering your search criteria into the Omni Search bar and select the "Expand My Results" facet on the left-hand side.

Click not available locally, click for more options.

The screenshot shows a search results page for the article "Strategies to Effectively Manage Multigenerational Teams Part II: Working with Gen Xers" by Owen J Dahl. The article is listed as "Not available locally, click for more options". A yellow box highlights the "Sign in" button in the top navigation bar. A red box highlights the "Add results beyond Queen's collection" checkbox in the left sidebar. Another red box highlights the "Not available locally, click for more options" link at the bottom of the article entry.

Sign in (yellow box) using your Queen's NetID and password (if not already signed in):

The screenshot shows the "How to get it" section of the article page. A yellow box highlights the "Sign in" button, which is accompanied by the text "Please sign in to check if there are any request options."

Under the Get It heading, click on Get it at another library.

A prefilled Resource Sharing Request form will be presented with the default request type as digital.
